A History of the World in 500 Railway Journeys

By Sarah Baxter

History is everywhere, and is never as complete as when it can be accessed on a part of history itself. The locomotive is one of the great steps in progress of civilisation that undoubtedly connects us to land and history that was shaped by the machine itself. Although a basic form of railway, or rutway, did exist in Ancient Greek and Roman times – notably the ship trackway between Diolkos and the Isthmus of Corinth around 600 BC – it would take several thousand years before the first fare-paying passenger service was launched in the early nineteenth century. Some two hundred years on, it is possible to travel by train to some of the world's most remote and remarkable destinations, and track the many wonderful legacies of the Earth's extensive history – man-made and otherwise.

Australian Bush Pubs 3/e
A Celebration of Outback Australia's Iconic Watering Holes

NEW

By Craig Lewis, Cathy Savage

Key Sales Points:

- * A unique look at the most characterful outback pubs in Australia.
- * This popular book, now in its 3rd edition, has sold over 22,000 copies.
- * Includes pubs from right across Australia.
- * Promotional material available - tailored posters and bookmarks.
- * Pre-Xmas media campaign targeting major metro plus caravanning publications.

This popular visual pub crawl across outback Australia, first published in 2010, is one of Boiling Billy's bestselling books. Lavishly illustrated with striking and fascinating full-colour photographs, Australian Bush Pubs features an eclectic collection of historic outback watering holes, including such classics as Queensland's famous Birdsville Hotel and New South Wales' characterful Silverton Hotel. The accompanying text portrays a short history of each establishment along with any unusual aspects, such as happenings, famous patrons and even ghosts! This third edition introduces a handful of new pubs and brings up to date many of the stories and photographs of the old favourites.

Australian Geographic

By Australian Geographic

Is there anything more vivid than the Australian landscape? Our Country is a work of imagination, grounded in the most breath-taking of places. As we allow ourselves to be swept away by elemental forces, we are transported from Australia's lush rainforests to its snowy peaks, red deserts to its aquamarine seas.

For 30 years AUSTRALIAN GEOGRAPHIC journalists have revealed the rich diversity of a nation. Inside this beautiful compendium of stories from a rich, 30 year history of examining the very best of Australia's nature, culture, people and places is a portrait of Australia beyond the urban and suburban fringe.

For The Love of Birds

By Australian Geographic, Georgina Steytler

Key Sales Points:

- * Beautiful, unique images by award-winning Australian photographer Georgina Steytler.
- * Professional insight into the art of bird photography.
- * Explores the concept of ethical and low impact photography.
- * Promotion on AG website.
- * Advertising in AG journal.

Georgina Steytler, one of Australia’s most gifted wildlife photographers, is passionate about birds and conservation. In this stunning collection of her work over the last decade, her poetic images portray birds as individuals, each with a character of its own, an intelligence and beauty to be admired, a mystery to be solved, a skill to be envied and each with a unique, and deserved, place in this world. An ethical artist who believes in treading lightly on the earth, she practices and describes the art of low impact photography which doesn’t distress wildlife or disturb natural behaviours. Georgina’s photographs are created to evoke emotion and imagination. She’s drawn to birds with personality and likes to use the elements, light and landscape around the bird to portray a sense of place, scale, perspective, contrast, mood and mystery. In For the love of birds, you’ll get to know some of Australia’s 830 species of birds in a series of beautiful and powerful images that will reconnect you with our natural world and inspire you to notice the wonderful birds all around us.

Abandoned Australia

By Shane Thoms

Barren red deserts dotted with post-colonial ghost towns, dilapidated inner city factories, discarded country homesteads and a succession of dormant, soot-filled power stations are just a handful of the desolate, yet visually rich narratives that form part of the abandoned Australia landscape. Shane Thoms uncovers the modern ruins scattered over this arid continent and reveals a series of beautifully broken abodes hiding in the crevices of the Great Southern Land.

Abandoned Melbourne: Lockdown

By Gavin John

Abandoned Melbourne presents a collection of photographs of the perennially awarded world's most liveable city rendered empty, and abandoned in Covid lockdown during 2020. Abandoned Melbourne depicts Melbourne vacant, with the CBD's places and spaces, customarily buzzing, rendered motionless and without life. Landscape photographer Gavin John, a long-term resident of Melbourne, turned his camera and his focus onto vistas of a different nature and reveals downtown Melbourne as it has never been witnessed before.

Abandoned Perth: Memories and Photos of the Lost and Found

By Delphine Jamet

In this beautifully photographed book, the author has captured abandoned places in emotive form: places as dark as time; history forgotten in the folds of the subconscious mind; beauty in decay, a presentation of life open to our personal interpretations. Atmospheric scenes unfold before the light of torches, with glass crunching underfoot, complementing the unremitting sound of dripping water. Creative wall art decorations attract attention, bordering the natural and unnatural worlds with a broad range of colours and exuding micro-organisms with compelling effects. The author describes urbexing – the pursuit of images of the abandoned and ruined – as a drug, a way of life as powerful as a state of mind. This is her world – this is Perth.

Abandoned South Australia: An Arid Journey

By Shane Thoms

The ruins of South Australia are barren, isolated time capsules. Starkly contrasting the states bustling city centre, we inhale these ghostly narratives upon the opening of each creaking door. A diverse, unique and often unexplored region of the 'Great Land Down Under', the visual stories presented here are mere footnotes of South Australia's long and complex history.

Discovering Natural Northern Territory parks reserves outback wetlands

By Louise Denton

The Northern Territory is an outdoor lovers paradise - the best-known desert destination in Australia and a must-visit destination for any Australian (or visitor to Australia) who loves the outback. As well as being the home of two of the country's most famous parks – Uluru/Kata Tjuta and Kakadu - there are dozens more just waiting to be explored. These abound with almost endless walks, 4WD treks, sites of interest, lookouts, activities, wildlife encounters, adventures and camps. This book will help you make the best of your time in the NTs natural places by highlighting the very best that the territory has to offer, whatever your interest in the great outdoors. Richly illustrated with over 150 full-colour photographs and dozens of detailed maps, this is an essential NT guide.

Best Walks of the Red Centre 25 wonderful walks in the heart of Australia

By Gillian Souter, John Souter

The heart of Australia contains a wealth of treasures: red-walled gorges, idyllic waterholes, fascinating formations and the culture of people who have inhabited this landscape for many millennia. It is a diverse landscape of arid flatlands, striped with ancient ranges and hidden, lush gullies. The best way to discover this colourful natural beauty is on foot. Best Walks of the Red Centre, part of Woodslane's popular walking guides series which has sold over 100,000 copies, introduces the best walks for visitors and locals alike, ranging from strolls along well-laid footpaths to more difficult hikes up rugged ridges and along remote river beds. The book covers many walks in and around Alice Springs, along the MacDonnell Ranges and the Red Centre Way, plus the iconic walks to be found around Uluru and Kata Tjuta, Watarrka and Rainbow Valley.

More Australian Birding Tales

By R. Bruce Richardson

9 781913 679248

A highly personal account of a phenomenal, once-in-a-lifetime adventure that saw Bruce and his wife, Lynn, embark on a year of travel and birding across the entire continent of Australia in a camper van. Their aim was to see as many birds as possible.

More Australian Birding Tales takes up where the author's very successful first book, An Australian Birding Year, ended. In this new book Bruce Richardson describes his further birding adventures, which take his total life list from 672 to 759.

Myke Mollard's signature illustrations and engaging text bring kids up close and personal with 47 of Australia's most deadly and dangerous creatures, helping them to discover the true nature of these wonderful animals. As fearsome as many of them sound, what they will come to realise on reading this book is that these creatures live mostly peacefully among us. Their deadly venoms, scary teeth and animal behaviour are normally just used as warning signs or, rarely, in defence. In reading, children will come to understand these creatures better, gain courage and form a proper respect for them. The beauty, majesty and wonderment of these stunning creatures, delivered in an engaging cinematic punch, will excite the imaginations of children for life.

- * Powerful botanical-like drawings are created in a graphic style that's likened to a comic book.

Australia's wild creatures are facing a fast-changing environment that has humankind's fingerprint all over it and hundreds are in danger of complete extinction. We can't save what we don't know or understand: awareness is paramount to helping these endangered creatures survive into the lifetimes of future generations. Myke Mollard's signature illustrations and engaging text bring kids up close and personal with 134 of Australia's most endangered creatures, highlighting both the common and uncommon threats to each species and revealing the fragile balance existing in nature and how our human impact is collapsing ecosystems and unbalancing the natural world. While some of these creatures may be iconic and well-studied, many of them are less known: all have their plight, beauty and character delicately presented in this important new book.
